WORDS RUN OVER

PRESENTED BY ELIZABETH LANE

SA

Getting distracted by trivial issues time passes by without my notice and I forget to appreciate what matters. So time has come to show my gratitude to the important residents of my world. This exhibition is a series of paintings and photographs mixed with poetry and text.

OPENING OF FLINDERS RANGES 'THROUGH OUR EYES'

port augusta regional tour

PRESENTED BY ADELAIDE FRINGE

AUS

Reconciliation through the painting of the Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal people of the Flinders Ranges. Three Aboriginal women artists (Regina, Juanella and Marita McKenzie) interpret the story of their region while a non-Aboriginal man (John Millard) paints his story, reflecting on one another and sharing a love of the Flinders. Exhibition runs until March 28.

WRECKED: TRAGEDY AND THE SOUTHERN SEAS: OFFICIAL OPENING

port augusta regional tour

AUS

A South Australian Maritime Museum exhibition - The early Australian colonies were totally dependant on sea for trade, industry, culture, migration, travel and survival. Shipwrecks could lose an entire community's supplies or destroy valuable export goods. Join us for a drink at the opening during Fringe.
